MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, SECOM

FROM: [REDACTED]
Director of Security

SUBJECT: Harassments and Provocations Study (U)

1. This memorandum is in response to Chairman, SECOM's request for members to review the draft update of the SECOM Harassments and Provocations Study and provide comments or concurrences. (U)

2. After completing the review of this document, it was noted that case number 9, page 23, is derived from information contained in the report from the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), dated 4 February 1985, entitled "Bulgarian Travel Matters", which bore a secret level classification. This information was stated at the time of submission to the SECOM. It is noted that the identity of the specific country has not been disclosed in the draft and it may be acceptable in its present form to the originating agency. (S)

3. It is, therefore, requested that prior to using this case at the For Official Use Only level, SECOM obtain FBI authorization to do so. We concur with publication of all other information submitted at the FOUO level. (U)
